

Trotter Jones, LLP's Website Privacy Policy

Trotter Jones, LLP is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our website. This Policy sets forth our website information collection and management practices.

Collection and Use of Your Information

We collect the information that you provide us when you sign up to receive newsletters, advisories, announcements and invitations or contact us by email. We use this information only to respond to your comments or questions or to provide services related to the specific purpose for which you submitted the information.

Cookies and Log Files

We also receive non-personally identifiable information through cookies and log files when you access the website. Certain technical information, such as your IP address, page views, operating system, Web browser software, and referring and destination website is automatically collected from your computer. Cookies allow us to statistically monitor how many people are using our website, how often someone visits our site and the length of the stay. This information allows us to monitor how many people are using our site and for what purposes. We use the information gathered from cookies and log files solely to generate broad demographic and user statistics to improve the content of our website. We do not link any information obtained from cookies or log files to personal information.

Information Disclosure

We do not share your information with any third parties without your consent except as follows: (i) where such disclosure is necessary to comply with the law or protect the safety of our users or others, or (ii) with service providers performing services on our behalf. Any service providers employed by our firm will have access to your information solely to the extent necessary to enable them to perform the service on our behalf and will be contractually prohibited from using the information for any other purpose.

Security

Our site employs security measures designed to protect against loss, misuse or alteration of information you provide us via our website. Trotter Jones, LLP is not responsible for unauthorized access to information by hackers or others who have obtained such access through illegal means.

Linked Sites

Trotter Jones, LLP may include links to external sites on its website from time to time. The inclusion of any link does not imply our endorsement of such external website or the products and services offered at such site. If you link to a third-party site from our website, any information you reveal on that site is not subject to this privacy statement. Therefore, you should consult the privacy policies of each site you visit.

Changes and Assent

Trotter Jones, LLP reserves the right to revise this policy at any time by posting a new privacy policy at this location. Please check this page periodically for changes. Your continued use of this website signifies your assent to this Privacy Policy
